

SOFTWARE QUALITY CONTROL ANALYST

Apply online at

careers.ticketnetwork.com

Description:

TicketNetwork is currently seeking a Software Quality Assurance and Control Analyst. The analyst will work within engineering teams, among developers, IT and Product Owners, to deliver high quality TicketNetwork products that meet current TN business needs and ensure a competitive market position. The analyst will be responsible for quality, ease of use and conformance to requirements, while working to release in a timely manner.

Job responsibilities include (but are not limited to):

- Review and assess requirements.
- Work with development team and product owner to ensure requirements are complete and testable.
- Ensure test environment is set up and working prior to QC cycle.
- Attend daily scrum meetings.
- Provide estimates of testing effort during the sprint planning meeting.
- Develop and maintain test plans and test cases.
- Execute regression and functional tests.
- Run manual tests and develop automated regression tests.
- Create SQL queries to perform back-end testing.
- Record, track and manage defects.

Required Skills:

Detail oriented with good problem solving skills
Strong verbal and written communication skills
Ability to work in a fast paced and rapidly changing environment

Required Experience:

Deep knowledge of Software Quality Assurance and Quality Control processes and practices
Well-versed in all testing methodologies (system, functional, black vs. white box)
Understanding of Agile/Lean development
Strong understanding of the Software Development/Testing Life Cycle (SDLC/STLC)
Knowledge of database concepts and client server technology
Minimum 2 years' experience with Selenium, Quicktest Professional (QTP)

Required Education:

- BA/BS degree required
- QAI-CSTE preferred

Job Location

South Windsor, Connecticut, United States

Position Type

Full-Time/Regular

Pay level commensurate with experience.