

CSE Ph.D. Degree Plan of Study Cover Sheet

Please complete the top portion and submit to the CSE graduate administrator with your signed UConn Graduate School Ph.D. plan of study form.

Name: _____	Student ID: _____
Prior M.S. in CS/CE/CSE: <input type="checkbox"/> Yes or <input type="checkbox"/> No
Semester of admission: <input type="checkbox"/> Fall or <input type="checkbox"/> Spring, year: _____

Ph.D. program requirements for students entering without an M.S. in CS/CE/CSE:

- At least 45 credits of graduate level courses (excluding thesis research credits), reflecting a weighted GPA of 3.0 or better.
- At most 15 credits, in total, of CSE5097, CSE5099, and CSE5600.
- At most 3 credits of CSE5097.
- Completion of the CSE Ph.D. Breadth Requirement.
- At least 15 credits of CSE graduate courses other than CSE5097, CSE5099, and CSE5600.
- At least 15 credits of GRAD6950 Doctoral Dissertation Research.

Ph.D. program requirements for students entering with an M.S. in CS/CE/CSE:

- At least 24 credits of graduate level courses (excluding thesis research credits), reflecting a weighted GPA of 3.0 or better.
- At most 9 credits, in total, of CSE5097, CSE5099, and CSE5600.
- At most 3 credits of CSE5097.
- Completion of the CSE Ph.D. Breadth Requirement.
- At least 9 credits of CSE graduate courses other than CSE5097, CSE5099, and CSE5600.
- At least 15 credits of GRAD6950 Doctoral Dissertation Research.

CSE graduate administration approval: _____

Effective date. These requirements apply to students commencing graduate studies in the Spring semester, 2016, or later. Earlier program requirements are available on the CSE website.