CSE M.S. Degree Plan of Study Cover Sheet

Please complete the top portion and submit to the CSE graduate administrator with your signed UConn Graduate School M.S. plan of study form.

Name:	Student ID:
Master's Program: □ Plan A (thesis) or □ Plan B (non-th	esis)
Semester of admission: $\square$ Fall or $\square$ Spring, year:
• M.S. Plan A (thesis) program requirements:
☐ At least 18 credits of graduate level courses (ex. GPA of 3.0 or better.	cluding thesis research credits), reflecting a weighted
☐ At least 9 credits of CSE graduate courses other	than CSE5097, CSE5099, and CSE5600.
☐ Successful completion, with a grade of B- or about	ve, of CSE5500 (Algorithms).
☐ At most 6 credits, in total, of CSE5099, CSE509	7, and CSE5600.
☐ At most 3 credits of CSE5097.
☐ At least 9 credits of GRAD5950 Master's Thesis	Research.
• M.S. Plan B (non-thesis) program requirements:
<ul> <li>□ At least 27 credits of graduate level courses, ref</li> <li>□ At least 18 credits of CSE graduate courses othe</li> <li>□ Successful completion, with a grade of B- or about the course of B</li></ul>	r than CSE5097, CSE5099, and CSE5600. ove, of CSE5500 (Algorithms).
Remarks on M.S. Programs.
<ul> <li>At the discretion of the student's advisor, up to six may be counted as graduate credits towards the deg counted toward the degree, such courses do not courequirements above.</li> </ul>	ree. Note, however, that while these credits may be
<ul> <li>At the discretion of the student's advisor, successful with significant algorithmic content may replace the</li> </ul>	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
CSE graduate administration approval:

Effective date. These requirements apply to students commencing graduate studies in the Spring semester, 2017, or later. Earlier program requirements are available on the CSE website.